Extend the Protection

THE AVERAGE CITIZEN of Statesboro is little aware of many things which are designed and administered for his and his community's welfare.

We are prone to accept as a matter of course the protection provided Statesboro milk, water, and meat users.

Yet "machinery" has been set up and is operating daily to assure us safe milk, water, and meat.

It was about a year ago that Statesboro made the forward step in enacting an ordinance which provides us protection from infected and dangerous meats and meat products. The ordinance was put on the city's books not for the advantage of a particular person, group of persons, or interests. It was put there for the benefit of the community, with the community—you, you, and you—bearing the cost with the city.

As a result of the ordinance we can safely say that better than 95 per cent of the meat and meat products sold in the city of Statesboro is inspected. This means that the animal is inspected before and after slaughter. Meats, safe and wholesome for human consumption, bear a blue inked seal of approval. A licensed veterinarian of many years experience in

We Can't Be Independent

THE OWNERS of tourist motels here are screaming.

And with reason. There was a time when what people did in one community did not matter too much to people in another community. Those were the days when most communities were independent of each other, self-sufficient in most things.

What happens in Bulloch county is reflected in Savannah, Augusta, and Atlanta tomorrow.

What happens in Sylvania, Claxton, ton, Glennville today affects Statesboro, Brooklet, Portal tomorrow.

And so it is that what is happening in Long county, with Ludowici the county seat, today is felt in Glennville, Claxton, Statesboro, Sylvania, Allendale the same day.

Law enforcement authorities are playing havoc with tourists making their way north from Florida on U. S. Highway 301. Tourists stopping here are showing local motel owners traffic tickets given them by a deputy sheriff in Long county charging speeding. The deputy sheriff is collecting from $15 to $21, and giving them a summons to appear in a court which convenes only four times a year. The car owner gets the only copy of the ticket made—there is no duplicate. Nor does the one the car owner gets carry a number.

So it is only natural that the driver assumes that when he pays the fine or puts up a cash bond he is contributing to a "racket." It is also natural for the law enforcement officer to assume that when he hands the car owner the ticket on which is a summons to appear at the court that the car owner will be at his home and will not take the time and trouble to appear in court on the day it is scheduled to convene.

Now, we are not objecting to the deputy stopping drivers who are speeding. We think he should. But the high-handed method in which the authorities of that county are operating would indicate that they are not concerned primarily with guarding the safety of our automobile public when they make their charges.

We can't believe that citizens of Ludowici and Long county approve of the actions of their officers. We believe that they must know these officers are hurting their community.

Looking at County Schools

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third in a series of reports on the schools of Bulloch county. The information for this series was compiled by members of the school buildings committee of the Bulloch County School Survey.

REGISTER SCHOOL

Eleven grades, 12 teachers, three buildings, gymnasium, shop and cannery, 10 acres. Elementary, seven classrooms and auditorium, lunchroom, kitchen.

High school, eight classrooms, two stories, four up, four down, including library, home economics and vocational agriculture.

From high school enter auditorium of elementary building, about 500, elevated floor. No dressing rooms offstage.

meat inspection stands between you and diseases found in edible animals and meats.

Dr. W. D. Lundquist, commissioner of health of the Bulloch County Health Department, commends local retail meat market operators for the fine spirit of cooperation they have manifested in working under the ordinance.

These retail meat dealers have, at their own expense, installed hand washing facilities, and hot and cold water for cleaning purposes. Most markets were not equipped for this before the ordinance was enacted. Many markets found it necessary to add to their equipment and discard worn out and outmoded equipment in order to meet the requirements. New cleaning methods have been instituted.

We believe Statesboro now has as safe a meat supply as can be found in Georgia.

Yet the same cannot be said of other communities in the county. They, too, deserve this protection. But it can come only through the adoption and enforcement of proper ordinance by the proper authorities in incorporated towns within the county.

It's a protection they all deserve, and need.

Class rooms 24 by 28 feet, five windows on left, need washing, jacketed stove, mostly blacktop desks, excessive blackboard. Walls and ceiling being painted light green and white. Bad stove, smoke, etc. Two exposed light bulbs. A few blond chair desks scattered around. No. 2 shades in bad repair. Storage room six feet wide.

High school is two story building, bad steps and porch. Principal's office. Classroom 20 by 24 feet; three windows on left, four in rear. Patented desks, un-jacketed heaters. Agriculture room has shades for darkening. All downstairs rooms same size. Combination storage and commercial room on second floor has been refinished in last three years.

Home economics and kitchen equipment good. Bad leak around flue. Single door light exposed. Sewing room has one fluorescent fixture.

Library has dark furniture, four windows, three tables. Laboratory equipment, cabinet, used in library. No science laboratory.

Wooden stairway in center of building. No fire escapes. Storage under stairway. Eroded playground. No toilets in high school building. Vets agriculture in office. Bad steps to elementary building. Dining room and kitchen in classroom. Narrow steps to shower from gym. Good exits.

Gymnasium contains girls' toilet, four commodes, one lavatory. Two shower heads, open stalls. Girls' dressing room connected to shower and toilets. Combination lounge and sick room. Boys' dressing room, etc., one commode, one urinal, one lavatory, bad condition.

By That We Stand

BY NOW, everybody has put in his two-cents' worth.

Douglas MacArthur is "at home" for the first time in 14 years, with his place in history assured, the exact place to be determined when tempers have cooled.

President Truman relieved General MacArthur of his command following MacArthur's letter to Representative Joseph W. Martin, Republican of Massachusetts, in which he advocated carrying the Korean war to the mainland of China, and using the Chinese Nationalist troops now on Formosa.

President Truman acted swiftly under power given in a United Nations resolution adopted last year and relieved General MacArthur of his command, and three issues are spotlighted:

1. Shall there be a limited war, or an all-out war, against China?
2. Shall Europe be put ahead of Asia as the decisive theater of conquest?
3. Shall civilian authority or military authority dominate in making strategy?

The people of our nation and the world are now divided on these issues. Time alone can resolve them.

But all citizens of this nation should by now realize that we must never allow civilian authority to give way to military authority.

So it is that Five Star General Douglas MacArthur has more right to go over the head of our President than the lowly shavetail second lieutenant has to go over the head of his first lieutenant superior officer.

By that we stand.

Our 101st A.A.A. Battalion Off To Wisconsin Camp

By VIRGINIA RUSSELL

LAST WEEK was a history-making one for the world and one that touched many lives right here in our community.

We were shaken by the news of MacArthur's recall to the United States by President Truman as we haven't been shaken since the first atom bomb was dropped in 1945.

America had a field day at blowing off its mouth. The editors of newspapers, men on the streets, and news commentators expressed themselves vehemently, pro and con. In some of the radio interviews with the public it was most heartening to hear a few, a precious few, reserve comments until they knew more about it.

While we wait breathlessly for any repercussions that may result from this startling bit of news, something much more personal has happened to our town. The 101st A. A. A. Battalion, made up of boys and men from this section of the state and commanded by Lt. Col. Henry Ellis, has left Camp Stewart for a camp in Wisconsin.

For some time now we have all been aware that this new move was inevitable. Just as parents know that children grow up and leave home, or that fall always follows summer, etc. But, because it was not pleasant thinking, we acted like Scarlett O'Hara and said, "Well, that particular tomorrow has come, and the men have gone from their post so near home."

Heavy hearts accompanied the men as they left, and heavier hearts were left at home with mothers, wives and children. The adjustment to their grief, but it will take courage.

In spite of their misadventure, these women are being the bravest soldiers and are able to inject a little humor into their thoughts. They are also philosophizing, too. They say it could be so much worse, that, as it is, they are near enough home to come in case of an emergency, and some wives hope to follow their husbands if living quarters can be found. All feel that it is a great blessing that their sons and husbands can be under a man like Col. Ellis, who is deeply interested in the personal welfare of each of his men.

Trying to dispel a little gloom (because it is hard to feel otherwise when one's friends are and), the following poem was remembered from the last war. It was written by Pvt. Ed McAuliffe.

DADDY'S OFF TO CAMP
I'm fit 1-A, and on my way,
No younger lads with eye more keen,
Not me to shrink a nation's work,
I'm with the dads of Board 14.
So

Paint the window sashes, dear,
Carry out the ashes, dear,
Put 'em where the trash is, dear,
Don't forget the lawn.

Be watchful of the fire, dear—
It often does expire, dear,
If no one can see him, dear,
To tend it while I'm gone.

Chip and shovel the ice and snow,
Keep an edge on the spade and hoe;
Somebody on the block will know
Where you can get a plot

To cultivate the corner lot
And have yourself a little plot—
I've always meant to plant that spot.
But never did somehow.

Shopping finished, errands run,
And the dinner dishes done,
When you've got the wash begun,
The children in corral;

When the floors are safe and free
Of their juvenile debris,
Don't neglect to write to me
And keep up MY morale.

The lightheartedness of this little poem has a lesson for all of us. We must remember to keep up the morale of those left behind.

Editor's Uneasy Chair

FORCE OF HABIT GOT US THE FORCE OF HABIT gave us a bad time last week.

In our Uneasy Chair last week, we reported that we visited "Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hodges."

Now, we know as well as you that Mr. Jim Hodges is not married, but one of Bulloch county's most respected bachelors.

We offer no excuse for our error. We can only explain that the force of habit is so strong with us that when we sit down to our typewriter and start "Mr. ...," it is followed by "and Mrs."

We do apologize, and assure Mr. Jim that we meant no reflection upon his status as a bachelor.

APRIL 23-30 IS DECLARED BLOOD PLEDGE WEEK.

Mayor Gilbert Cone has proclaimed the week of April 23-30 as Bulloch County Blood Pledge Week.

During that week, civic organizations, farm organizations, church organizations, schools, home demonstration clubs, will be calling on citizens of our county, asking them to pledge at least one pint of blood during the year.

It's such a small matter to contribute just one pint of blood that someone else's chance of surviving may be enhanced that one wonders that our citizens do not step forward at their own insistence and volunteer to do this great service.

But experience has indicated that regardless of the degree of our consciousness of citizenship, we must be prodded oftentimes to act.

A great concerted drive will be made all over the county to secure signatures on 2500 or 3000 pledge cards. When the drive is complete we want it to be the voice of Bulloch county, rising above selfish whims, and shouting, "COUNT ON ME FOR PART OF MY BLOOD!"

Let's forget for the moment the great need of, and the constant use of, whole blood at our Bulloch County Hospital.

Let's think of the man, who, except by the grace of God, might be your son, your brother, your husband, your father-in-law, the battle area of Korea. He's the man sent by you, and you, as much as you would like to shirk the responsibility, to represent you in the war against the spreading of communism.

You have a definite responsibility to that man. And that responsibility can be dispelled to a small degree, by your volunteering to contribute a pint of your blood sometime during the next six visits of the Bloodmobile to the community Center here in Statesboro.

That's a small thing to ask, is it not?

News dispatches from Korea are filled with stories of the lives saved by whole blood that is rushed to combat zones by the American Red Cross.

After receiving 75 pints of whole blood—one of the top transfusion records in the Korean war—Sergeant Richard Kimbrough is alive today.

A member of one of the first units to enter the combat area, the 20-year-old sergeant was wounded by enemy shrapnel. But six days later he was back on duty, recovered from superficial wounds on his arms and legs.

Then he was hit again—this time by a machinegun which put two slugs in his abdomen and two more in his left leg. Sergeant Kimbrough lost a lot of blood, which had to be replaced. In one day he received 25 pints of whole blood donated by the folks back home through the Red Cross.

Later, he received 50 pints more. And again we say, except by the grace of God, that man might have been your son, your husband, your brother, your father.

Sign your pledge card, saying, "I'll give a pint of my blood, that it might save the life of someone who could be my son, my husband, my brother, my father!"

Mr. Sidney Lanier and Mrs. Arnold Rose were elected as delegates to the State Garden Club Convention, held in Savannah on Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

THE BETA SIGMA PHIS are planning to send delegates to the state convention which meets in Macon Saturday and Sunday.

FLO PRESTON left Friday morning for Washington, D. C., to attend the D. A. R. Congress. Flo was a study in brown—or should we say, spiced brown. Her suit, spring straw hat, straw shoes, and a natural and brown straw, and a spiky shantung bag was most becoming. She will wear a toast last evening dress with rhinestone trim for the grand ball. Flo is a delegate to the Congress.

THESE ARE many activities, but, if you can possibly do so, we should arrange your social life so that you can attend the series of meetings on Civilian Defense and Destruction.

As ever,

Tragic Push

In a certain city recently, one vehicle struck the rear of another which had stopped for a red light. The stopped vehicle was shoved forward into two pedestrians, killing one and seriously injuring the other.

Maybe the forward driver did not signal his intention to stop. Maybe he stopped suddenly. But in any case, the driver behind should have been watching the traffic light and the movement of the vehicle ahead. He should have been following at a safe distance and should have done his own slowing down gradually in plenty of time.

Two innocent pedestrians paid a high price for a common type of driving fault.

BRIDE-ELECTS FETE AT DELIGHTFUL TEA

The home of Mrs. Fred T. Lanier Sr. was the scene on Tuesday afternoon of last week of a miscellaneous show-tenor, honoring Misses Irma Spears and Dorothy Johnson.

Miss Spears, home demonstration agent, will wed C. D. Lee Jr. of Stillson, in May. Her assistant, Miss Dorothy Johnson, became the bride of Bill Whitehead at the First Baptist Church Saturday afternoon of last week.

Hostesses for the elaborate tea were Mrs. Lanier, Mrs. Arthur Howard, Mrs. Carl Canfield, Mrs. Ralph Moore, Mrs. Lester Martin, Mrs. M. J. Morris, Mrs. Jack Norris, Miss Jim Renfro, and Mrs. Otis Groover.

Guests were met at the door by Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Canfield introduced them to the line composed of Mrs. Lanier, the honorees, and Mrs. C. W. Lee Sr. of Stillson, Mrs. Ralph Moore directed guests to the dining room where Mrs. Lester Martin was hostess. Mrs. J. M. Norris poured coffee. Mrs. Jack Norris kept individual bride's books. Mrs. Otis Groover and Miss Jim Renfro presided in the gift room.

The bride's table, overlaid with an imported hand-embroidered linen cloth, had the silver service at one end. At the other end was a beautiful arrangement of iris and English dogwood in a silver bowl, placed on a reflector base. Fanning out from this arrangement were triple-armed silver candleholders holding white burning tapers. Toasted nuts in silver compotes were served from the table.

Miss Spears was lovely in a lettuce-green organza featuring lilacs of the valley in shadow effect. The short jacket was entirely of embroidered organza with a frame neckline. Her corsage was of yellow carnations.

Miss Johnson was becomingly attired in a pink organza with white flowers and green leaves over embroidery. The embroidered neckline gave an off-shooter effect. The full skirt was ballerina length. She wore an orchid corsage.

Farm Bureau

'Farming Is a Business,' Mrs. D. L. Deal

Tell Warnock Farm Bureau Members

Farming is a business today, a business that calls for an education, Mrs. D. L. Deal stated to the Warnock Farm Bureau on Wednesday night.

There was a time, Mrs. Deal thinks, when a man could grow most of the local crops without too much ability, but the present competition and machinery used calls for as much ability to farm as in any other field.

She pleaded with the group to conserve their timber, pointing out that it took only 18 acres of pine trees, handled right, to finance a college education.

Education today means more than just the ability to grow pine trees and crops. It means the ability to get along with neighbors and ability to work with each other. The Farm Bureau meetings as conducted in Bulloch county are helping in this field, Mrs. Deal stated. She encouraged land ownership because it is a secret inheritance of every real American to own some real estate.

R. P. Milcox, county president, reported on the business-man-farmer meeting held at the Rotary club, as well as the speech of H. L. Wingate, state president, at the same meeting.

BETA SIGMA PHI SORORITY

ELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR
At the regular meeting of the Alpha Omega Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority on Monday night of last week, the following officers were elected for another year: President, Mrs. Lamar Traynall; Vice President, Mrs. Jack Wynn; Secretaries, Mrs. Earl Lee, Mrs. Charlie Robbins; Treasurer, Mrs. Bernard Scott. These officers will be installed at a special service planned for the first meeting in May. This sorority adjourns with the second May meeting for the summer and will resume activities in September.

JOHNSON-WHITEHEAD

The First Baptist Church in Statesboro formed a lovely setting Saturday afternoon for the wedding of Miss Dorothy Ann Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis M. Johnson, of Bogart, Ga., to Orman William Whitehead, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Arch Whitehead, of Glen Allen, Ala. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Lovell, music by Mrs. E. L. Barnes, organist and Miss Nettie Sturges, vocalist. Easter lilies and white glads filled the vases on the altar, which was banked with coiled ferns and palms.

Miss Evelyn Johnson of Columbus, served as her sister's maid of honor. Her dress of aqua net over tulle with a sheer strapless bodice and long full skirt and was worn with bolero having long sleeves pointed over the hand and high neckline. Mrs. Bernard Jackson of Athens served as bridesmaid and her dress was identical to that of the maid of honor. They carried bouquets of Talamon roses and Cavalier roses, tied with Talamon ribbon, and wore a coronet of Cavalier roses in their hair.

Clifton Hallmark, of Pell City, Alabama, was best man. He and Whitehead and the groomsmen were Bernard Jackson, Athens, Ga., C. M. Shotts, Dublin, Ga., C. C. Fancher and John Kelly II, both of Macon, Ga.

Escorted by her father, the bride was lovely in her gown of ivory slipper satin having a flared skirt that ended in a long train. The close fitted bodice was featured with a Marquise yoke outlined with bugle beads and seed pearls. The long sleeves buttoned at the wrists and tapered over the hands. Her finger-tip veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a prayer book covered with a white orchid, with streamers of white satin ribbon tied with feather white carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Johnson wore a grey-green crepe dress. Her corsage was a lavender orchid.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at the Woman's Club. Decorations were Magnolia leaves, Easter lilies, White Glads and Mock Orange blossoms. Covered with a cloth of pink venise lace, the bride's table was beautiful with the five branched candelabra holding lighted tapers and arrangements of fern and mock orange. The wedding cake was topped with the miniature bride and groom.

After the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead left for Miami, Fla., the bride wearing a rose-lilac linen dress and white linen redingote with matching accessories. On their return they will be at home on Grady Street, Statesboro, Ga.

Out of town guests, besides the wedding party, were Miss Margie Malcom, Mrs. Weyman Malcom, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Burnett, Mrs. James A. Turner, Sanderville, Ga. Miss Elsie Jean Kennon, Watkinsville, Ga., Mrs. H. Sheppard of Belleville, Ga., Miss Helen Shepard, Columbus, Ga., and Mrs. Desso Griffin, Waycross, Ga. Miss Linda Betha, Mrs. Emmett Robinson, Miss Esther Norton, Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. C. C. Fancher, Macon, Ga., Mr. Tom Kinsey, Excel, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. John C. Burnett, Eastman, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. James A. Turner, Sanderville, Ga. were present.

SPRING FESTIVAL THEME

FOR COUNTRY CLUB PARTY
Highlighting the social season was the party given by members of the Forest Heights Country Club Wednesday evening April 11. Guests were invited from neighboring towns. In all, two hundred members and their guests were present.

The club room established the Spring Festival motif through the decorations, the dance cards, the table appointments, and the special dances. The main dance was especially attractive with a yellow stucco tree at one end. Underneath the tree were blooming iris, stock, and other spring flowers. A snowy white lamb with blue ribbons and bells around its neck, against a background of huckleberry, stood in a bed of spring flowers which reached down the length of the mantle.

The buffet table was centered with a brandy glass in which mixed flowers were arranged. A lovely crystal candelabra with glittering prisms held lighted pastel candles. The small tables were centered with single candles based in aluminum foil holders in pastel shades. The programs were printed on spring green paper with silver print. A spring lamb in playful mood decorated the cover.

The buffet supper offered delectable and delicious food. Jimmy Redding, the Social Chairman of the Country Club was assisted by Mrs. Grady Atkinson, Mrs. F. C. Parker, Jr., Mrs. Frank Mikell, Mrs. Paul Sauve, Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. Everett Williams, Mrs. Edna Neville, Mrs. John Jackson, Mrs. R. J. Kennedy Jr., Mrs. Bob Thompson, Mrs. Charles Olliff Jr., and Mrs. Loy Waters. The show put on by college students under the direction of Dan Biggers and Miss Gay Kimbrough was the high spot in entertainment. Those participating in the songs, skits and dancing were Misses Joan Bennett, Betty Ann Beddingfield, Joan Deyan, Gay Kimbrough, Betty Sherman, Dan Biggers, Sonny Hawkins, and Bill Fox of Young Harris. Joan Bennett and Betty Ann Beddingfield were cigarette girls and they also danced the "Can-Can" and appeared again in a Hawaiian Dance. The Romeo-Juliet skit was a masterpiece in not too subtle burlesque. Modern dances were interpreted by Betty Sherman and Jack Wade, while the combined talents of Dan Biggers and Gay Kimbrough were applauded vigorously.

Harry and Hazel Minkovitz of Sylvania responded to a request made by giving Sylvania's version of the "Sally Brown" with enthusiastic approval. Dance music was furnished by Emma Kelly and her orchestra.

CIVIC GARDEN CLUB

The Civic Garden Club met Friday at the home of Mrs. Glenn Jennings. Serving as joint hostesses were Mrs. J. O. Johnston and Mrs. Roger Holman.

A profusion of American Beauty roses were used in the flower arrangements. Assorted sandwiches, cookies and coffee were served up on the arrival of the members.

After a short business session, Mrs. Percy Bland, in the absence of Mrs. Alfred Dorman, gave a report of the State Garden Club Convention held in Savannah last week.

Mrs. Jimmy Collins spoke on the growth and cultivation of camellias. The members exchanged plants from their gardens. This plan excited interest as it will add variety to their gardens.

Twenty-five members were present.

In the Sears Foundation show to be held in Savannah May 4, James Minick and Ray Brindley will carry their girls, and Jimmy Wilson will enter his male hog. In this show, 15 F. F. A. chapters from the Savannah area will enter hogs, and five chapters from South Carolina will have entries.

In the show at Brooklet, Ronald Dornay, vice president of the F. F. A., welcomed the guests to the show. The judges were Ralph Dixon of Claxton, E. W. Graham of Millen, and Albert Clifton of Metter.

The show was sponsored by the Farm Bureau, the Kiwanis Club, and the Farmers and Merchants Bank. Prizes were donated by the businessmen and farmers of the community.

D. L. Alderman, president of the local Farm Bureau, delivered the awards.

Last Friday night members of the Game Dames Club entertained their husbands with a canasta party at the Community House, with Mrs. Robert Alderman, Mrs. Fred Bradford, Mrs. William Clifton and Alman, of Sylvania, visited Mrs. G. D. White Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Waters and little daughter were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Waters.

Hamp Smith was in Atlanta last Friday attending the wedding of his nephew, Kenneth Smith.

Misses Jimmie Lou Williams, Betty Parrish, and Jane Robertson, students at Georgia Teachers College, spent the week end here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Baker, of Elberton, Pa., will arrive this week end with the week end with Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Beasley and children, of Savannah, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Lee.

Friday night, April 20, Misses Linda and Judy Warnock, young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Warnock, will give a piano recital in the high school auditorium. The program, which will begin at 8 o'clock, is being sponsored by members of the Brooklet Primitive Baptist Church. Admission will be 50 cents, the proceeds from the entertainment to be used for the improvement of the Brooklet Primitive Baptist Church.

These young pianists, Linda, 14, and Judy, 10, are piano pupils of Mrs. Helen Hoffman of Savannah. Mrs. and Mrs. J. W. Robertson Jr. and Claude Robertson spent last week end with J. W. Robertson Jr. at Battery Hospital, Rome.

Forestry News

By J. W. ROBERTS, Ranger

Many thanks for a job well-done. That's the message of the week of the Bulloch County Forestry Unit, and it's directed to the staff of The Bulloch Herald. Fighting fires is only one part of the task of the forestry unit; we want also to prevent them, and it is in that field that this newspaper has been of invaluable aid.

Bringing a message each week to the citizens of Bulloch county on the work being done in reducing the acreage lost annually in forest fires is one which the personnel of our forestry unit could not accomplish alone. A means of giving wide distribution of this information to the general public is required, and the cooperation of The Bulloch Herald in offering us the use of their columns has provided that means.

If you are familiar with the value of Bulloch county's forest lands, with the latest methods we have for combating forest fires, with the services the unit offers to woodland owners, chances are you gained much of your information from the pages of this newspaper. The American newspaper always has been characterized by its willingness to further the civic virtues of its own community, and the excellent activity of this newspaper in that respect has been of great benefit to our unit.

With the season of dangerous fires in this area beginning in the fall and lasting until early spring, and sometimes later, we of the Bulloch County Forestry Unit can readily realize how important the constant support of the newspaper has been in our work. Parts of Bulloch county are still green today, rather than being wasted lands which are charred and black.

Much of the credit for that winter-time coating of greenery can go to the staff of The Bulloch Herald.

NURSERY GROUP PROVES POPULAR
Even with the bad weather last week a big crowd was on hand for the nursery group as the new hours proved popular with the mothers and the tiny tots. The nursery now meets from ten until eleven thirty on Saturday mornings. Last week Mrs. Wester from the college was the guest story teller. The kids enjoyed the said refreshments and the movie, "CINDERELLA," after a two year absence with the tiny tots.

Eddy Arnold, the Tennessee Plowboy, will be there with the Oklahoma Wranglers and the Statesman's Quartette in a full-hour show. Governor Talmadge will be there in person to start the mill.

There will be a free lunch served, compliments of Ralston Purina Company to all who get their invitations from our store.

Lots of fun; lots of entertainment; interesting farm animal exhibits.

We have free tickets at our store for our customers and friends who would like to attend. It will be a big day. Come and get your ticket at our store. Tickets are free, but admission and free lunch by ticket only.

McAllister Makes Report On Legion Memorial Funds
This week C. B. McAllister makes a report to the citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch county on the status of funds collected during World War II with which to build a memorial to the men of this community who served in World War I and World War II.

In his statement Mr. McAllister says:

"During World War II, a committee of which I was chairman, solicited funds to be used in building an American Legion home to be dedicated as a memorial to the boys who served in both World War I and World War II. In soliciting these funds the committee was made that if the funds were not used for this purpose the money would be refunded to the donors.

"Because of building restrictions imposed at that time it was impossible to construct the building, and since that time building costs have been prohibitive for the type of building that was to be a credit to the city and county with the funds in hand."

At the present time $21,154.19 in United States government bonds and certificates on the First Federal Savings and Loan Association and the Sea Island Bank which can be used for the purpose of constructing such a building.

The building committee is composed of three members from the local post of the American Legion, together with the Mayor and the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, and this committee would appreciate suggestions from the public regarding whether we should attempt to build at this time or continue these funds on interest until such time as building conditions improve."

Mr. McAllister in making this statement wants it plainly understood that the committee will welcome suggestions regarding these funds.

The Statesboro Band has qualified for 31 events, including instrumental solos, ensembles, band twirling, marching, and concert playing for both the Junior Band and the Blue Devil Band.

In the First District Music Festival held at Georgia Teachers College on Thursday, March 29, the Statesboro band collected 29 out of 38 superior ratings.

Last year the Statesboro Band was the only band in its class to receive a superior rating in the state festival held in Milledgeville. Guyton McLendon is director of the Statesboro band.

Enlistment Based On Draft Status
Announcement is made this week by Mrs. Ida Matz, clerk for the local draft board, that any applicant for enlistment in the armed forces who has received a notice to report for his pre-induction physical, or who has completed his physical and has been found acceptable for induction, is not eligible to enlist in the U. S. Army or Air Force until such time as the classification by the local board has been changed, or his order to report for induction has been cancelled.

At present cancellations of induction orders are being given only to those students who are classified as IAP. Students may make written application to their local board for such cancellation for the purpose of enlisting in the service of their choice, provided a vacancy exists and they are acceptable to the service. This request should be honored by Selective Service Boards within 30 days of the student's school term, and applies to both college and high school applicants.

Further information may be secured from the clerk of the local board in the courthouse.

Forecast Story Is By Irma Spears
A feature in the April, 1951 issue of "Forecast," a national publication for home economists, is a story written by Miss Irma Spears, home demonstration agent of Bulloch County, together with a series of photographs.

The story is about what happens when 20 county project leaders take over training of 300 community leaders.

One photograph shows Mrs. Ralph Moore, chairman of the home industries committee, with a flower container which she hammered from roofing copper; another shows Mrs. Rufus Brannen, home demonstration agent in the Neville Home Demonstration Club, and her daughter, Beverly, Bulloch's 4-H club council president; and a third shows Mrs. J. D. Fletcher, executive secretary of the county, as they all examine a dress made by Miss Anderson.

Doctors To Help Train 1st Aiders
John Swift, first aid chairman of the Bulloch County Chapter of the American Red Cross, this week announced that classes designed to train first aid instructors to meet the needs of a growing civil defense program will begin here Monday, April 30 at 7:30 in the Blue Room of the Jackel Hotel.

Mr. Swift stated that five local doctors have generously consented to instruct a group of selected persons in standard and advanced first aid in order to qualify them for the instructor's training course by a southeastern area representative of the Red Cross.

Bill Bowen, local Civil Defense director, expresses a feeling of concern over the increased world tension and a complete lack of first aid-trained persons in this community, and asked the Red Cross for an immediate program aimed at meeting this critical need.

Cooperating doctors include Dr. John Moore, Dr. Bird Daniel, Dr. John Barkdale, Dr. Waldo E. Floyd, and Dr. W. D. Lundquist.

The classes are planned to last three hours and will be held Monday, Wednesday and Friday each week. All persons interested are asked to call Mr. Swift or Mrs. J. D. Fletcher, executive secretary of the local Red Cross chapter, for further information.
